Open Mic Night

Fridays 7.30–9.30pm

“What a brilliant, brilliant place to perform in.”

In the first 12 months since we opened 484 musicians and 137 writers have performed live in the Chapel FM Radio Theatre.

Every Friday night we hold a Live@Chapel FM night with a fantastic selection of bands, poets, singers, storytellers...It's all broadcast live, both audio and video, with a studio audience...you are welcome to come along.

But on the last Friday of each month we hand the stage over to you. Anyone who wants to come along and perform a couple of songs, read some poetry or do some comedy. In front of a friendly audience it's your chance to try out something you've been working on or do completely new.

Hosted by three of our young volunteers–Molly Rymer, Zoe Carty and Holly Atkinson–just turn up on the night by 7pm to book yourself a slot, or leave a message at the Chapel with Centre Manager Fuzzy Jones.

And if you want to come along just to enjoy being in the audience, then it's Pay-What-You-Can and you can book a seat at chapelfm.eventbrite.co.uk or just pay on the door.
